Toronto, Dec 14/15

Dear Miss Scott. -

I first ran in to have a few minutes chat with you, if you are too tired to listen to me fold me up and lay me aside till you feel equal to it, and I will not mind
in the least.

We have been having company for the last week, and, as you know, I am chief cook and bottle washer as well as lady entertainer in showing off our beautiful City, so my hands have been o'er full, else I would have been around before this.

As I was writing this morning my thoughts were back in Queen Sound and I saw the two of us having a drink in that little back room, it made me laugh, how funny we must have looked drinking our phosphate; and do you remember the lovely drive we had that morning out to the park, how beautiful the hills looked. I did enjoy every moment of the time I spent with you, and I am always so thankful that the dear Lord has let us know each other in this life.

Now my dear I know I have talked too much so I must away to my work.

Give my love to your sister, she is a most charming woman.
Mother and Aunt were so glad to meet her.

They both join me in love to you.

Sincerely yours
Minnie Powell

Probably Babe, Bob, Joy
Gordon & I will go out to the country
Sunday & take our lunch.

Dearest:

Your letter came this morning and I am so glad to know you are having a rest and enjoying your stay.

I was quite lonely for a little while after you telephoned last night that you were going to stay on, but I think you are wise, - so does Babe. She thinks I am making great strides, and certainly it is easier to do the same things than it was a week ago. Babe & Bob - were in to Charlie's last night & I was talking to her to-day. She wanted to come over to get our lunch but Mrs Martin did it for us.

Lesca Denn telephoned me about an hour ago. & Gordon answered the phone: neither recognized each other's voice. She is on the way to Stony Lake.

As I told you Dene, Jy Gdm & I had tea at Mrs Eaton yesterday. When passing I thought it would be interesting for Mrs Burnside to meet Dene but she was in town. Mrs Eaton wanted ^{me} to ~~to~~ give you her love.
 She has made no plans for Muskoka & told Sir John to have the Wandaht fixed up for Lady Eaton because she was not very well. She said 'Jack was pleased' Mrs Burnside sails for England on June 28th & 'will probably come back in October'.

General Currie sent a fine 8 page appreciation of the Canadian soldier: he could not have possibly done anything better to please Canadians. It will round off the book beautifully & the publishers are very pleased. The advance notices have been well received from coast to coast & a large sale is anticipated.

It is just as well I am staying down home or I would be putty lonely, but I come up here every day for mail, the garden etc.

I hope you have a real rest and continue to have a very happy time. With much love - as always your lover George.
